Задание 1

Write a short article about volunteering. Write 120-150 words. Use questions below as a plan.

- Who are volunteers? What qualities are needed to be a good volunteer?
- What can volunteers do?
- Why do people volunteer?
- What is your attitude to volunteering?
- What volunteering activity would you like to try to help your community?

Примерный ответ

Volunteering has become increasingly popular nowadays. Volunteers are people who do something beneficial for free, without being paid. If you want to be a good volunteer, you need to be altruistic, ready to help, patient, sympathetic and sociable.

There are a lot of activities volunteers can be engaged in. For example, they can help senior citizens, take care of animals in animal shelters or take part in different social or sporting events.

Actually, people volunteer for different reasons. Some of them want to find like-minded friends; others want to gain new valuable experience and skills which may be useful in the future.

As for my attitude, I am convinced that any voluntary work is worth trying. Why not doing something useful for people around you or your community? If I had a chance, I would like to do something to help the environment.
